“Certifying as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise...

Is This Your Next Step?”

What are the advantages of certifying as a woman owned business with the Department of Transportation's Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) program? Are you ready for certification? Join us for this month's women's breakfast to learn more about the program, how it could enhance your business growth, or how to determine if this is a sound strategic step for your business.

Call today to register for this breakfast presentation: 274-7232

Introductions begin at 7:50 for this breakfast. Come prepared with your 10 second intro! Looking forward to seeing you soon!
